

CAMP LEJEUNE JUSTICE ACT

NOTICE: If you served, resided, or worked at the Marine Corps Base Camp Lejeune, or at the Marine Corps Air Station New River located in Jacksonville, North Carolina from August 1953 through December 1987, and were exposed to the water, you and your family may have a claim to recover disability benefits. Members of the military, military staff, non-military staff, civilian contractors, and families of deceased victims all may be eligible to file claims.

If you believe that you or a family member were exposed to the toxic water, and you want to submit a claim, you must submit proof that:

- You lived or worked at Camp Lejeune or MCAS New River for at least 30 cumulative days from August 1953 through December 1987 (Utility bills, housing records, military orders, tax forms, etc.);
- You were a veteran, reservist, Guardsman or a civil contractor who was exposed to the contaminated water;
- You did not receive a dishonorable discharge when you separated from the military; and
- You were diagnosed with one of the following medical conditions:

Bladder cancer

Esophageal cancer

Hepatic steatosis

Leukemia

Miscarriage

Myelodysplastic syndromes

Non-Hodgkin's lymphoma

Scleroderma

Renal toxicity

Miscarriage

Breast cancer

Female infertility

Kidney cancer

Lung cancer

Multiple myeloma

Neurobehavioral effects

Renal toxicity

Parkinson's disease

Birth defects and birth injury

Neurobehavioral effects

SHOULD I OPT OUT OF THE CLASS?

The facts of each individual claimant will vary. Some claimants will suffer damages and losses much greater than other claimants. A full case evaluation will be undertaken once all evidence is obtained to determine whether you are better off opting out of the class. Please contact Dennis Rose at (252) 480-1414 or email him at dennis@outerbanksllaw.com to schedule a free case evaluation.